Dedication

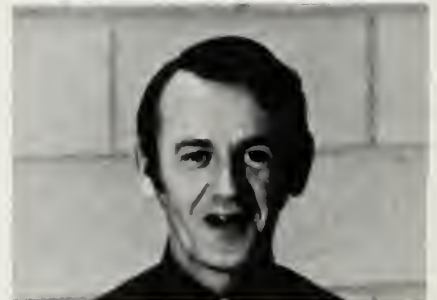

We, the class of '74, in order to form a more perfect dedication, to establish our sincerity, to insure our devotion, to provide our dedicees good luck as we say goodbye, and to promote their general welfare and security, do ordain and establish our dedication to Mr. Gray and Mr. Barry.

Mr. Barry, the quiet, casual type, seeks new ideas and keeps up with youth. Always dressed comfortably, in timely clothes well-suited to his free relaxed nature, he enjoys an occasional change of pace — whether getting a new car, growing a beard, or going to Europe.

On the other hand, Mr. Gray, a friendly, out-going man, always dresses in conservatively tailored suits. As much a part of his style is Mr. Gray's constant, cheerful smile, so very much valued by all who know him. He enjoys and takes pride in his work, which he does to perfection.

Our class cordially thanks Mr. Barry and Mr. Gray for the outstanding work they have done here at MHS.

Key Club

The Key Club is a national organization run by students. The purpose of the Key Club is to better students relationships with people of all ages, and to improve relationships with the community.

As one of the countries largest Key Clubs, the Marshfield Key Club has successfully served it's purpose.

Rid Litter Days, tutoring at elementary and high school levels, dances, clearing bogs for skating, and Appreciation Dinners are only a few of the many important activities that our Key Club has engaged in over the past two years.

In what most observers term a "building year," the Marshfield Rams, playing as many as twenty-five underclassmen in some games, struggled to a 2-7 year. The season was highlighted by wins over Silver Lake and Abington and close games with Hingham, Rockland, Randolph, and Bridgewater. Top senior performers during the season were quarterback Tim Kane, receivers Ed Catabia and Dan Donahue, fullback Rich Daley, line men Clarke Phillips, Tom Lund, Bob Wilsterman, and defense backs Chris Gaughan and John Taylor. John Maeder, a hard-hitting linebacker, was selected to the league All-Star team. These people will all be missed, but coaches DiGravio, Roper, Henderson, and Silva are optimistic about next year's chances.

A black and white photograph of a forest path. The path is covered in fallen leaves and is flanked by tall, slender trees. Sunlight filters through the canopy, creating a bright, glowing effect in the upper center of the image. The overall mood is serene and natural.

Congratulations and Best of Luck to the Class of 1974
